

POWER OF 2025
PROCUREMENT

THE POWER OF US

Regional Coordination for Place-Based Commitments

Description: This session brings together partners across multiple cities, counties, statewide and/or across multiple states to improve coordination and collaboration among public food purchasers, supply chain partners, community-based organizations, and governments.re

Session Agenda

- Opening and Session Introduction
- Panelist Story Telling
- Open Panel Discussion
- Q&A (Approximately 20 minutes)
- Close out

Michigan State University Center for Regional Food Systems

- Director of Farm to Institution Programs
- Ishpeming, MI
- tsupros1@msu.edu

May Tsupros (they/them)

Farm to Institution New England (FINE)

- Co-Executive Director
- Boston, MA
- tania@farmtoinstitution.org

Tania Taranovski (she/her)

Cook County Department of Health

○ Director of Chronic Disease Prevention & Control

○ Chicago, IL

○ aorourke@cookcountyhhs.org

Amy O'Rourke (she/her)

Chicago Food Policy Action Council

- Director of Good Food Purchasing Initiative
- Chicago, IL
- mabel@chicagofoodpolicy.com

Mabel Shiu (she/her)

Fullwell

○ Senior Manager

○ Bay Area

○ gmarquez-nieblas@fullwell.us

Grecia Marquez-Nieblas
(she/ella)

The Common Market Southeast

- Executive Director
- Atlanta, GA
- bill@thecommonmarket.org

Bill Green (he/him)

New Mexico Public Education Department

- Universal School Meals Program Manager
- Santa Fe, NM
- Elizabeth.Anichini@ped.nm.gov

Liz Anichini (she/her)

May Tsupros, Michigan, Moderator
Tania Taranovski, New England, Panelist
Amy O'Rourke, Chicago, Panelist
Mabel Shui, Chicago, Panelist
Grecia Marquez-Nieblas, Bay Area, Panelist
Bill Green, Southeast, Panelist
Liz Anichini, New Mexico, Panelist

Open Panel Discussion

Q&A